Somewhere in Belgium

Dear folks;

Just a few lines to let you know I am getting along fine but am very busy. Am very sorry I haven't been able to write as much as I used to, but with all our moving & our mail both incoming and outgoing has slowed down.

The people here are very glad to see us. They are very hospitable. They speak a variety of the French language. Frequently they bring us hot coffee. They really give us a royal welcome when we pass through their towns. They line the streets throwing confetti, paper streamers, apples, pears, plums and kisses. If you happen to pass through there

Towns and stop they almost mob you in their quest for American Souvenirs.

Well I must close now.
Hoping these few lines find you all in the best of health - I hope we will be able to come home soon.

With Love to all
Ralph

P.S. Give my regards to all. and please send me a box of cookies and candy -

Yours

Am enclosing a Souvenir from Belgium, it's a book mark.
